COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL

Columbia High School in retrospect:
a collection of experiences responsible for making whomever we are from whomever we were.

COLD MILK
COLD DRINKS

There were good times with our friends...

. . . and times to be alone.

Opportunities to expand,

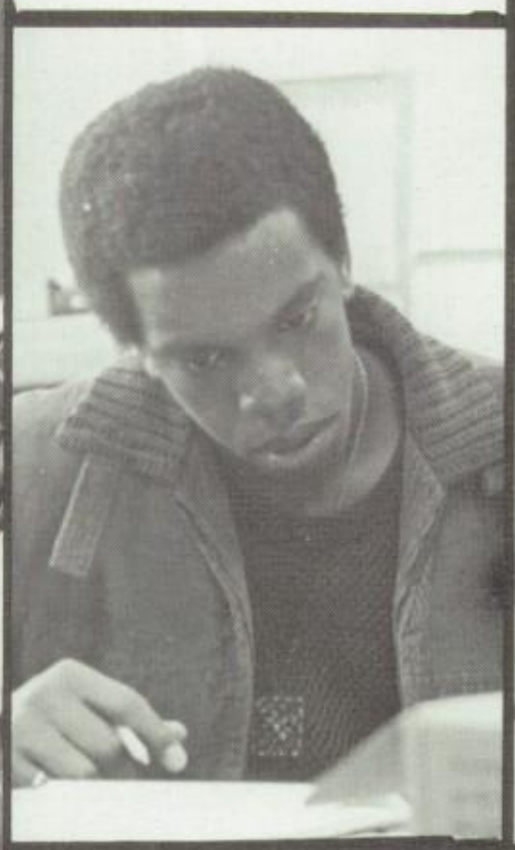
to mature.



Dear Theo,
June is hot and sweaty.
It's the mourning of my graduation, 1973. Klean high school air is driving my lungs. "A terrible beauty is born." I am terribly scared.
"Godd wishes, Brothers,
everywhere,
and. Don't You Tread On Me" (2)

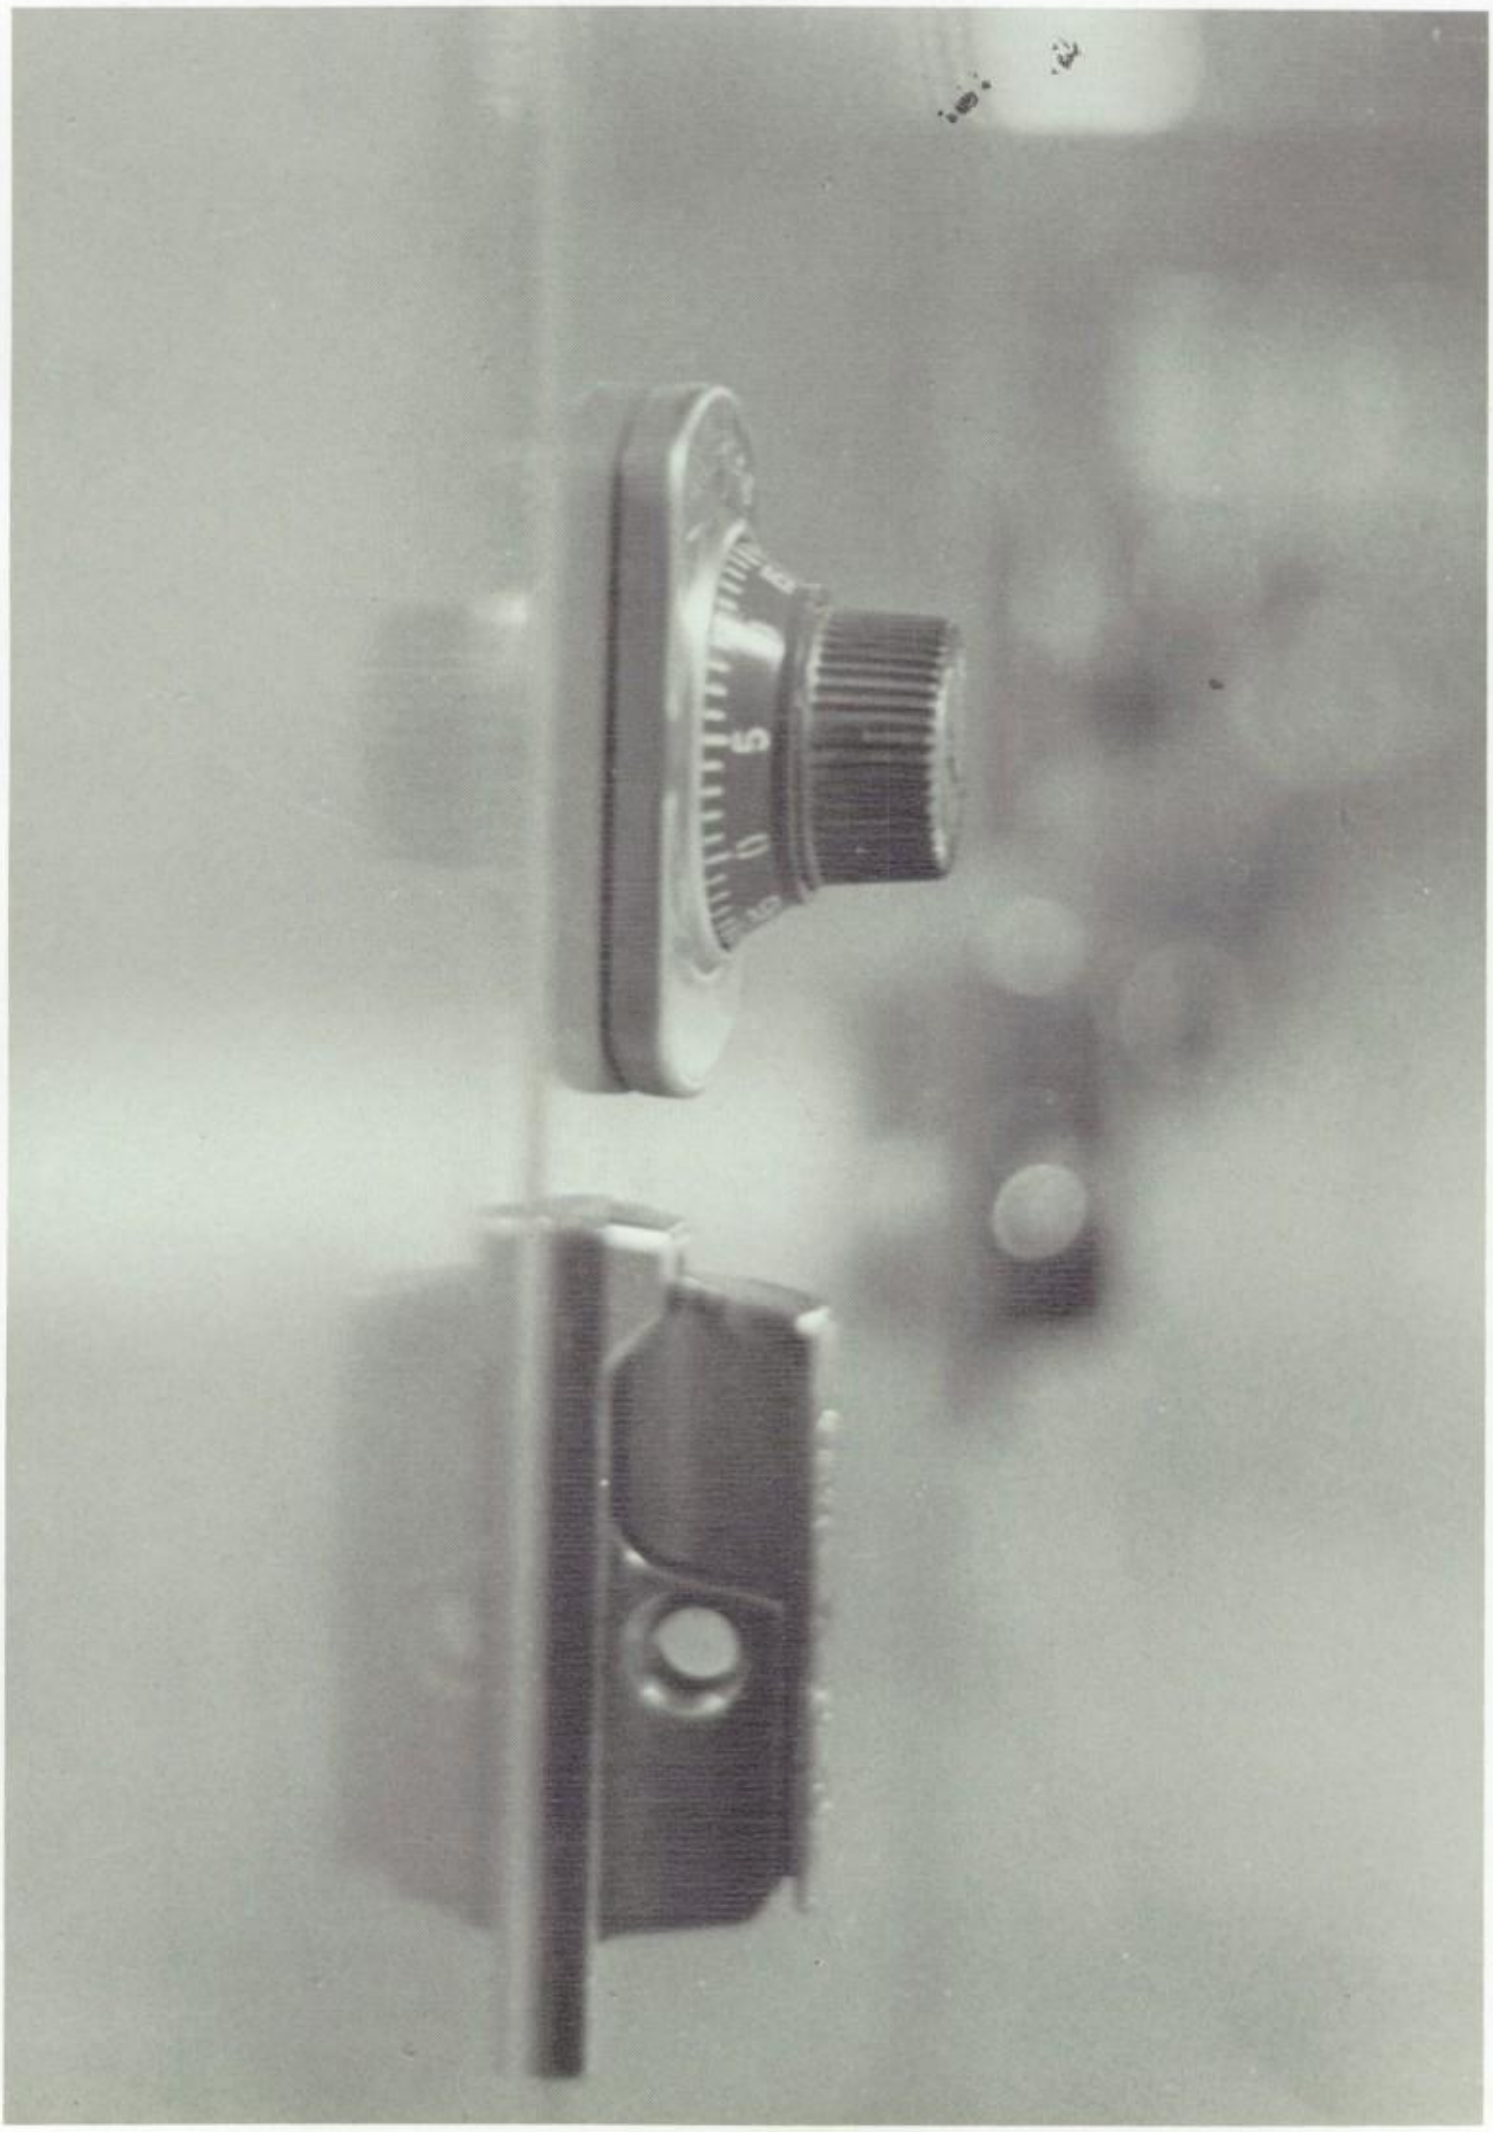
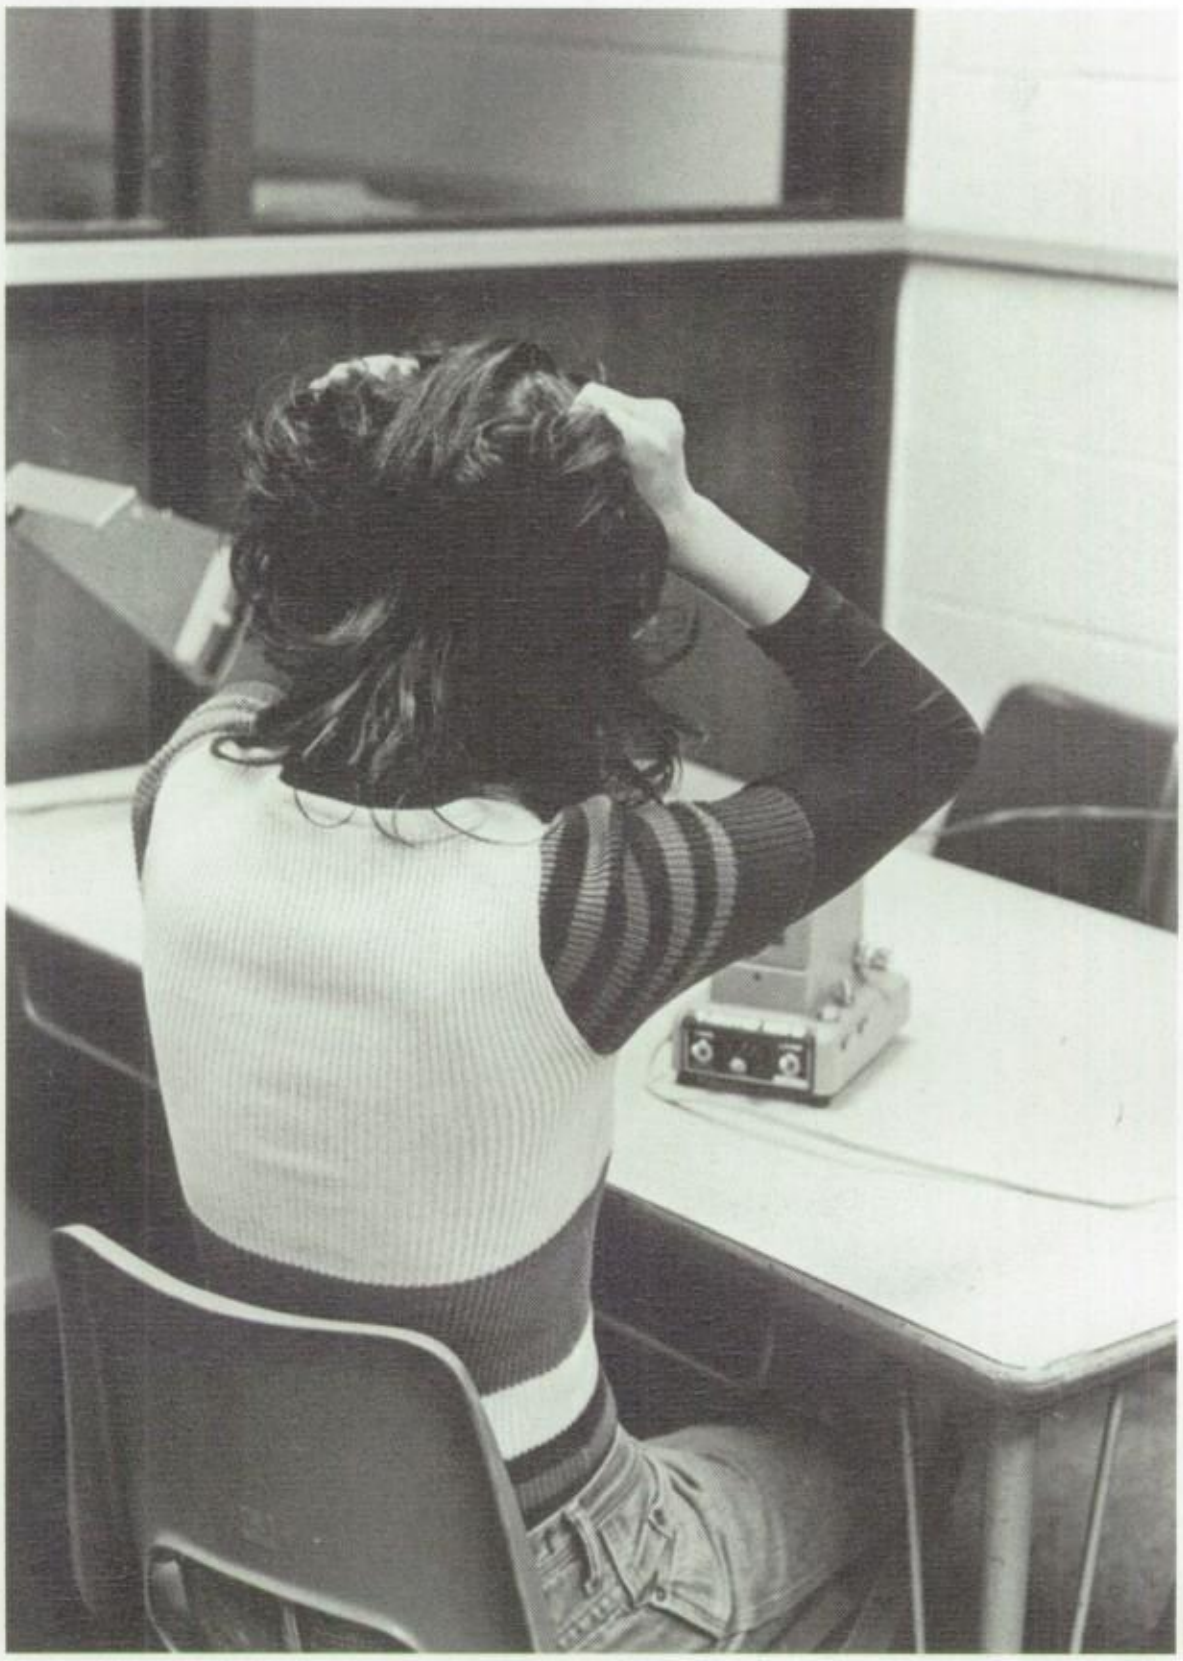
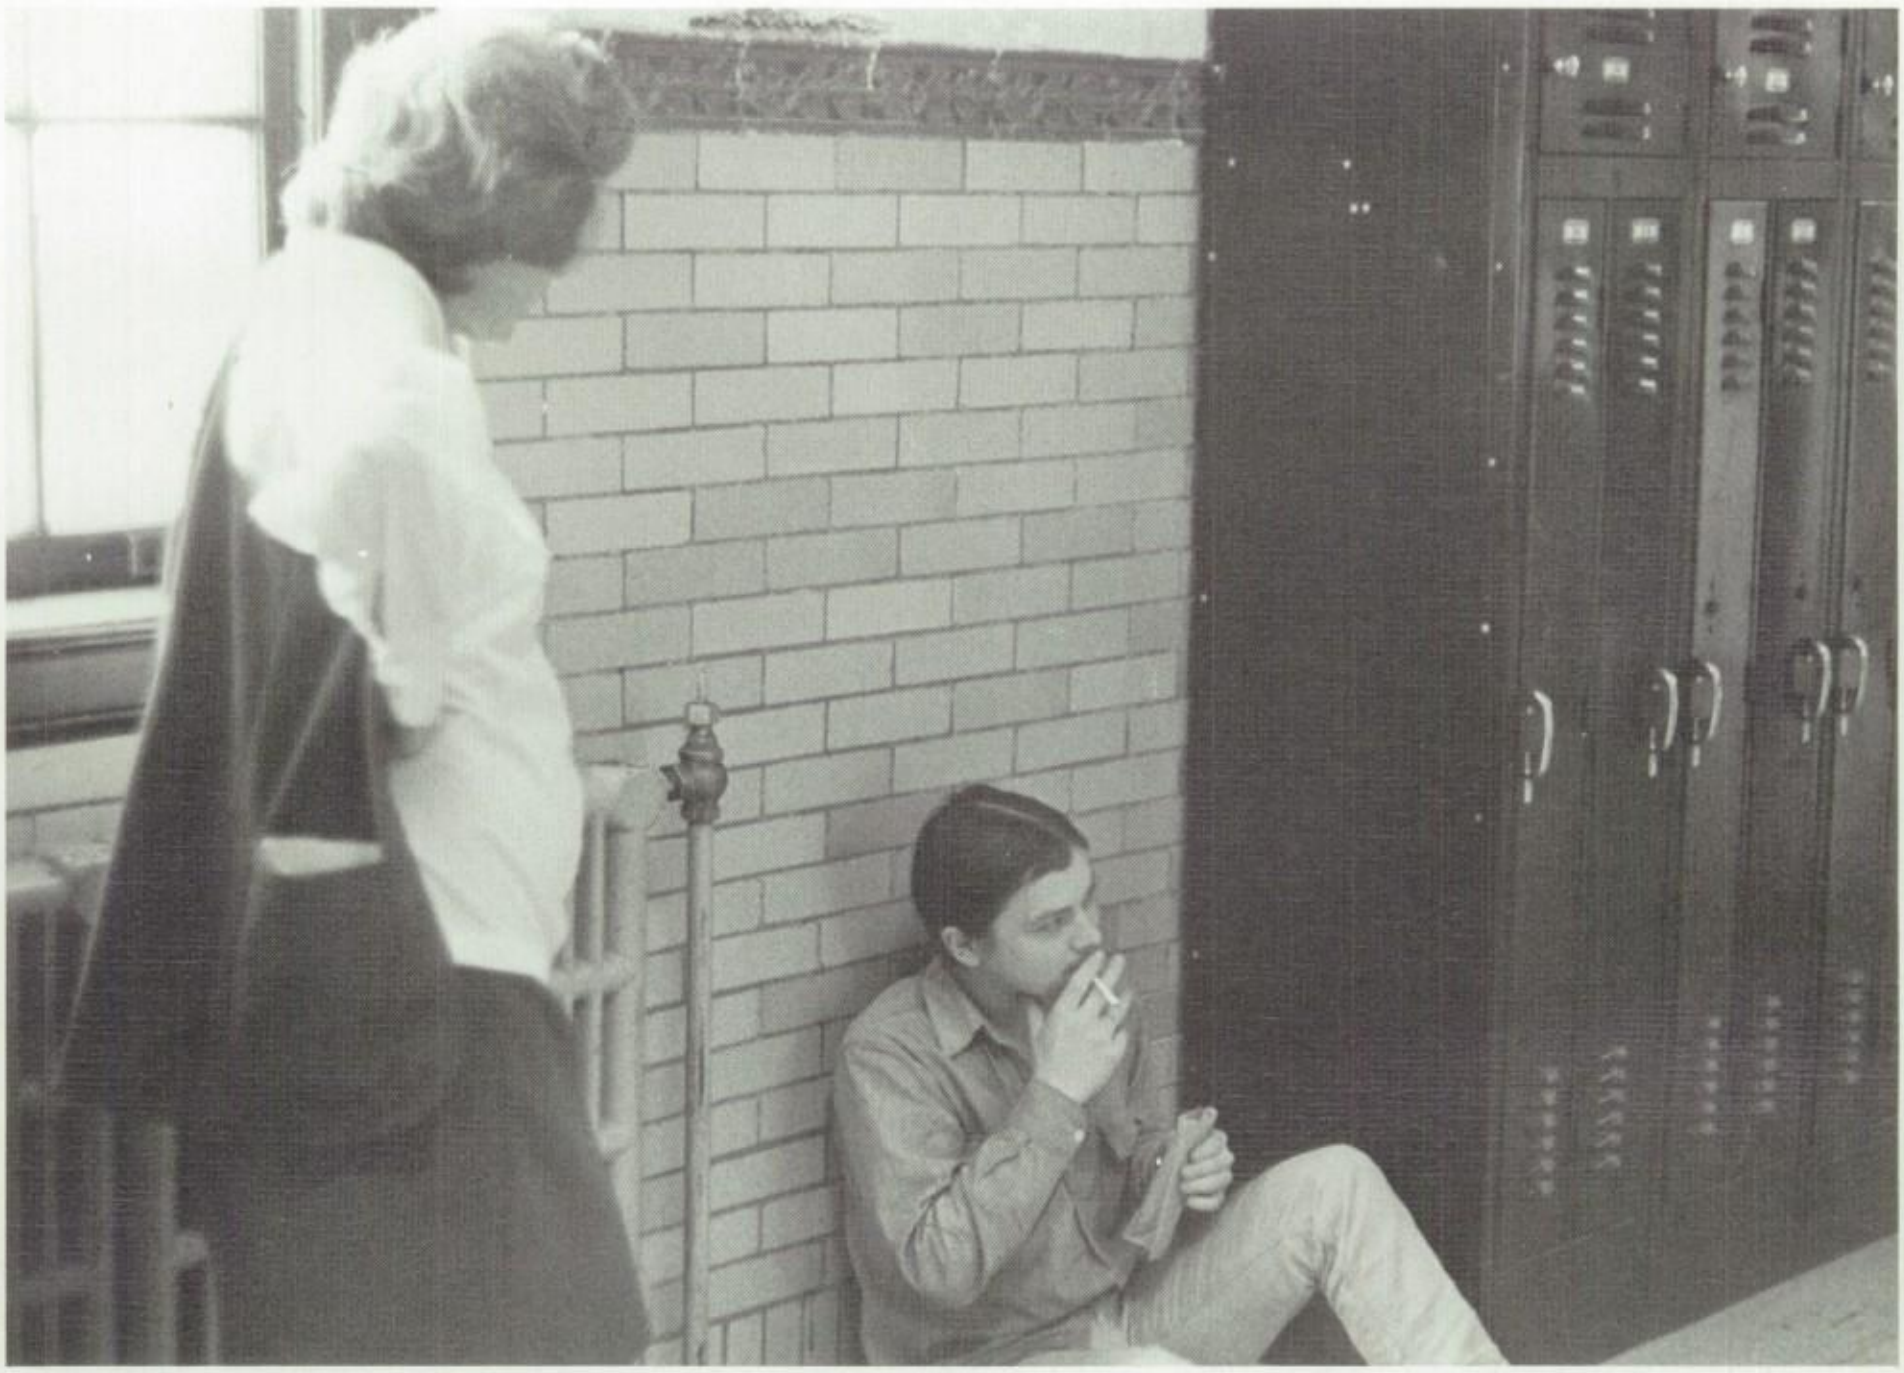
The mechanization of the system







Being caught

and not being caught

Our days at Columbia were those of varied experiences and emotions.
We've gone through them in our own ways and have emerged, unified as a class, individualistic in our dreams.

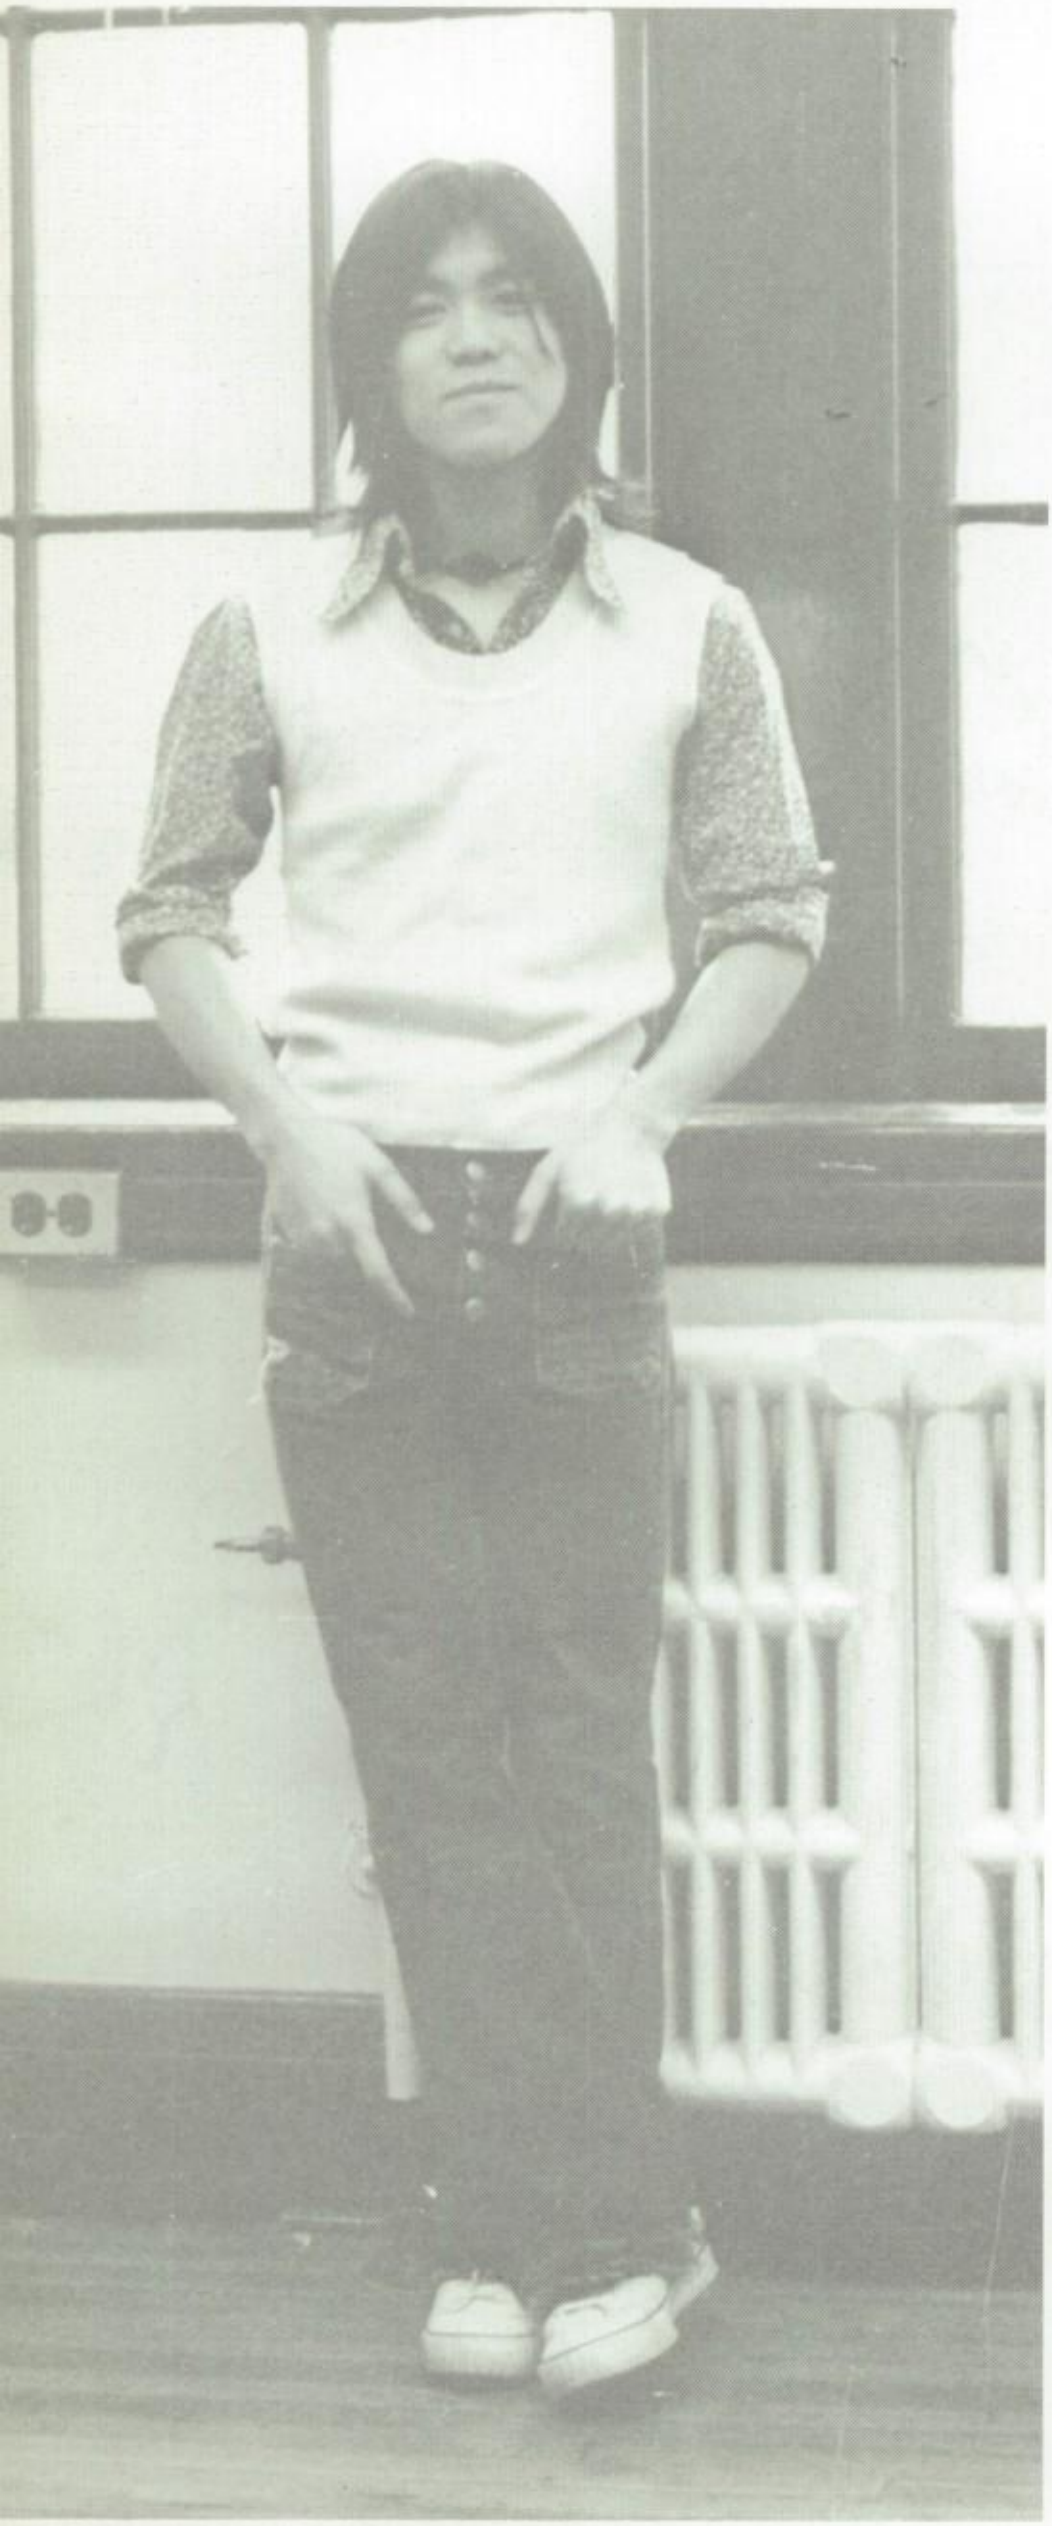
Foreign Exchange: A Message From Kogi



All my thoughts I am feeling about Columbia High School is that Columbia is such a great in a word. And I think that the Columbian students are educated by cultured teachers are very happy, also they are so nice and friendly for me.

Now I am studying very hard for myself in Columbia which everything is fine. I couldn't speak English too much when I came here, however everyone helped me, so I can speak much better now. And I am taking subjects of Chinese, Russian, Math, U.S. History, Russian History and English in here. It seems to me that my schedule is so hard, because teachers teach me by English, so I don't understand English too much but I think it is really a good experience for me to try this kind of schedule.

I have many favor teachers who are kind and nice in Columbia. One of them, Mr. MacDonough who is my U.S. History teacher is a extremely nice man. It is difficult for me to study U.S. history, but he always help me. But he told me he has to retire from office only this year. I am so sad and lonely. Probably everybody of Columbia will be sad after he leave from Columbia. I wish we who are educated by Mr. Mac never forget about a great history teacher, Mr. Mac.

On the other hand, I like Mr. Trent who was my English teacher and Mr. Quiroli who is my adviser and my Chinese teacher. Mr. Trent, he always keep smiling for everybody and he is so funny. When I always talk with him soon I go to the laughing. I think he is not English teacher but he is comedian. Of course, this is joke. About Mr. Quiroli, he is a very intelligent man and he understands whatever I do. I hope he get a beautiful wife from Japan for him. So, of course, other teachers who teach me, they are my dear gentlemen and ladies. I can't forget that I lived in Columbia in my life. After I go back to Japan, in my dream and in my new life, it is positive I am going to remember of Columbia.

Now, I am thinking of my future. I would like to learn the universal politics in college. Maybe I'm believing it's possible for me to become a stateman and I am going to try very hard for people of the world. Between American and Japanese, they speak different languages each other, but don't a matter. We are able to have real communication, and we must work for peace on the earth. I would like to work for people rather than for myself in the world.

So, finally I will give you, "We are together". Good luck whatever you do!

FOR PEACE AND LOVE.

THE COLUMBIAN: Danny Perlmutter, David Margules, Andy Leibman, Alison Silver, Paul Schindel.

This year it became evident that the columbian had seen better days. Although it never reached the caliber of excellence that had been set over the past several years, it did make some remarkable innovations. Rather than have a slipshod weekly paper full of inaccuracies usually associated with assemblyline journalism, this year's columbian adopted a "you'll-get-it-when-we-print-it" policy. By doing this they were able to make the articles well-researched and more comprehensive.

In addition, the newsprint quality of the paper, which had given the columbian a more professional look, was scrapped in favor of the more economical "high school newspaper" approach of white offset paper. This allowed for easier production and permitted more in-school composition and printing.

Finally, the Hellring Memorial Fund presses were used to their fullest capacity in the production of the 1972-1973 issues. This allowed greater flexibility for the now proficient, although sometimes deficient, columbian staff. One can only hope that the columbian will see better days.

Student Government: House Officers/Senior Class Officers

HOUSE OFFICERS: South House; Joanie Huberman, East House; John Carlin, West House; Orrin Devinsky, North House; Terry Martin.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: President; Anthony Carridi, Secretary; Karen Quinn.

The House Councils proved to be effective during their second year. Each house provided activities and eased student boredom. However, the councils were limited in that they could not reform any school policy. In addition, they frequently suffered problems that were the results of a newly established program.

The East House Council was under the direction of John Carlin, president, Rochelle Kostant, vice-president, and Ellen Steiner, secretary. Under their leadership an extremely successful concert was held in January. Included in other activities they planned was a square dance, after-school movies, and a newspaper. The Council allotted part of its funds to the decorating of the Commons and contributed $271 toward the The Bridge, a community tutorial center.

Orin Devinsky, Karen Ciarrocca, and Sandy Brown were the president, vice-president, and secretary of the West House. Their major contribution to the West House was the presentation of films which featured Buster Keaton, W.C. Fields, Laurel and Hardy, and the movie, Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid. In addition, they sponsored a trivia bowl assembly and purchased a ping pong table for their commons.

The North House Council was under the supervision of Terry Martin, president, Gary Leiner, vice-president and Risa Perlmutter, secretary. The major activity of the North House was a donkey basketball game that was sponsored in conjunction with the East House.

Led by President Joan Huberman, Vice-President Robert Eisenberg, and Secretary Jody Stern, the South House Council organized a successful bake sale and a Marx Brothers movie night which increased South House funds.

Student Government: School Officers

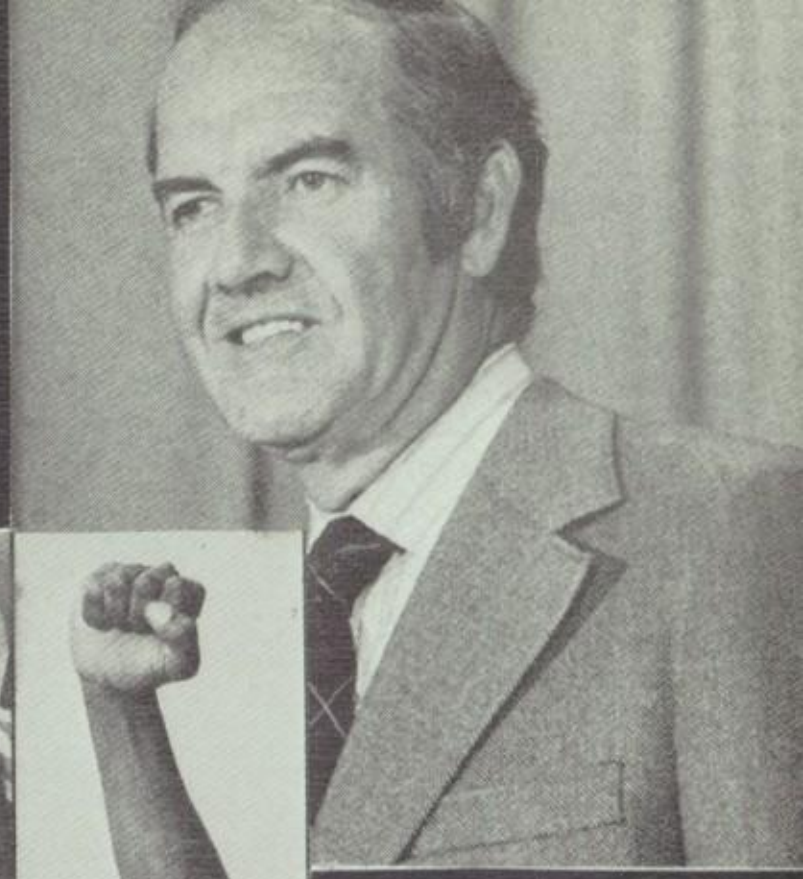
Student Council spent the entire first semester debating its own dissolution. This Constitution, introduced by President Brett Fennessy among others, was finally defeated in an unusual roll call vote on January 23. Interest in the governing body dropped as it became increasingly difficult to attain a quorum. As the second semester began, the Council started to consider matters of interest to the students, concerning eligibility, the "no-bell" system, the columbian, and others.

Much interest was focused on the Coordinating Committee. Students John Carlin, Orrin Devinsky, Brett Fennessy, Joanie Huberman and Teri Martin served on the fifteen member body, which advised the Principal on questions of school policy. The committee has not publicized its role in school affairs.



Yearbooks are for looking back: places, people and things that we'd love to remember or that we'd like to forget.

1972 was an exciting year, one that some will love to remember and others will try to forget.

Twirlers

The 1972-73 twirling squad was led by 4 captains, Ellen Gomer, Lisa Martin, Judy Palazzo, and Angelika Rohrs. They were all on the squad during the 1971-72 season and will be succeeded by juniors Diane Cipollini, Karen Schuster, and Margie Stager. Mrs. Margaret Van Dorpe, the faculty sponsor, patiently guided the girls in the organization of their routines. In spite of the rain, it was a successful season to be fondly remembered by the captains and the other seniors on the squad, Nancy Brewerton, Lucia Marano, Jamie Martini, Joanne Massa, Debbie Spicer, Diane Stamper, and Carol Yablonicky.

Elson looks for an opening.

The 1972 Cougar Soccer Team has emerged as the best in the history of the sport at Columbia. With 11 lettermen returning from a 13-1-2 record in 1971, Coach Chyzowych and tri-captains Seale, Singer, and Evangelista led the 1972 Cougar Soccer Team to an undefeated season.

The Cougars drove to a 14-0-2 record and won their first Big Ten Championship ever.

Numerous school records were shattered, many of them by All-American Elson Seale. However, underneath the many outstanding individual performances was a well-coordinated team effort which brought Columbia as high as number 4 in the state ranking throughout most of the season, their final ranking, number 7 in the state of New Jersey.

In the State Tournament, the Booters received a bye in the 1st round and in the 2nd round defeated Parsippany Hills. In the 3rd round, Columbia dropped from the tournamanet after a disappointing loss to Teaneck High School by a score of 2-1.

The defense was bolstered by standouts Larry Evangelista, captain, playing the sweeper position, and Captain Jon Singer, guarding the opposing center forward.

The mid-field was carried by senior Claudio Hickel, who played three years of varsity, and juniors Bill Burks and Dan Yafet.

Forwards Ademire De-Souza and Craig Bershaw, along with captain Elson Seale, were the mainstays in an offensive machine which rolled up a total of 74 goals in 16 games.

In all, 13 Cougars were named to the All Big Ten Team, 6 to All Essex, and 4 were named to All Sectional Regional and State.

Injuries, erratic play, and some questionable officiating resulted in a disappointing 1-7-1 won-loss-tie record for the Columbia Varsity Football Team. The Cougars, after a hopeful preseason, played their first game of the season against Morristown under 2nd year Head Coach Dom Calabria.

The Cougars drew first blood in this, the opening game. Pete Good took a pitch from quarterback Steve Frampton and lobbed a 28 yard touchdown pass to Al Enderle. Frank Villone converted the extra-point try, and Columbia was ahead, 7-0. Good himself later scored on the tail end of a drive, making the score 13-6. Morristown scored three straight times, and the Cougars had dropped their first game.

The following week, Columbia faced Millburn. The Millers jumped to a 14-0 lead until, early in the second half, Pete Good ran a punt back 41 yards for a Columbia touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, the ball was jarred loose from the Millburn ball carrier. John Hoffner took the ball in mid-air and went in for a Cougar six-pointer. Dave Leiwant soon intercepted a Miller pass, setting up another score by Good. Millburn finally pulled ahead and won, 27-22.

Jim Romano, after a fine performance in the Millburn game, took over at quarterback against the Livingston Lancers. Good scored two touchdowns and Mike Butkus hauled in a clutch pass for the Cougars who, however, fell by a 26-12 score.

The Cats began well against Orange, with Leiwant intercepting a pass and Joe Springer ending a drive with a touchdown. A Leiwant six-pointer was sandwiched between two Orange scores, and the Cougars led by 15-13. The Tornadoes crossed the goal line 3 times in the second half and triumphed, 38-15.

Joe Tamburo, returning from an injury, joined the Cougars in facing a tough defeat at the hands of Nutley. Good had an 85 yard punt return for a touchdown, and Romano went in on a bootleg for a score against the Maroon.

The Cougars were close to beating Montclair for the second straight year, tying the Mounties in the Woodman Field mud. The defense played a fine game, the only Mountie touchdown coming after an errant snap on a punt deep in Cougar territory. The Cougars tied the game with Good sailing 88 yards with a punt for a touchdown.

Columbia's 7th game was played against Kearny. Bob Vida stepped in for the bed-ridden Good and performed admirably, taking the opening kickoff 61 yards. The Cougars couldn't score, and Kearny took over and went ahead 7-0 on a drive. Vida ran the Kearny kickoff back 89 yards for Columbia's long score. Williams later blocked a Kearny punt, but the Kards held and drove for the winning touchdown.

The following Saturday, East Orange fell to Columbia for the first time in 15 years. Neither team scored until the third period in this game. After Leiwant blocked a Panther punt, the Cougars took over on the East Orange 1 yard line. Springer plunged in over right guard for a touchdown, and Villone's conversion attempt was good. Villone added a field goal after another mishap involving the Panther punter. Columbia held on to win their first game of the year.

In the season finale on Thanksgiving, Columbia battled Seton Hall Prep. Coach Calabria promised the fans some suprises for this game, but the Cougars couldn't stop the powerful Pirate offense. Dave Leiwant took a hand-off from Pete Good out of the single wing offense and sped around end for Columbia's lone touchdown.

The Columbia Football Team voted awards to outstanding players for the first time in 1973. Peter Good received Best Back Honor; Dave Leiwant and John Russen both received MVP awards; Joe Tamburo was cited as the outstanding lineman; Steve Diamond was voted as the Most Improved Player.

The 1973 Cougar Harriers, led by Coach Len Klepack and Co-Captains Bob Duerr and Pete Davis, produced a record season. The team's score was 8 and 3 in dual meets. The big thrills for the team came with their wins in the Big Ten Conference and Essex County Meets at Branch Brook Park. The Cougars Top Seven (with seniors Pete Davis, Bob Duerr, Tom Evers, Juniors Al Krikszens, Kevin Reiss and Sophomores Jim Davis and Jim Somers) ran to an overwhelming victory in the Big Ten Meet, beating runner-up Montclair by 24 points. Davis broke the course and Big Ten records at this time, running the 2.5 miles in 12:05 for a first place finish. Duerr finished second in 12:24, erasing the school record of 12:33. Columbia rounded off its victory by placing Tom Evers 11th, Al Krikszens 13th and Jim Davis 20th.

The following week the Cougar 7 again journeyed to Branch Brook Park for the Essex County Meet. The Harriers won by a slim four points, edging out second place to Glen Ridge in a tremendous team effort. Davis won the individual first place title, setting a meet record, Duer finished fifth, with Jim Somers, Jim Davis and Tom Evers rounding out the winning team.

The year 1972 also saw Coach Klepack's runners travelling to several invitational meets. These included a fifth place finish in the Fordham University-sponsored Eastern-Cross-Country Championships at Van Cortlandt Park in New York. A fourth place finish was achieved in the Coaches' Shore Invitational Meet in Lakewood.

The team showed great potential this year with juniors Mike Clark, Ron Gonzalez, Frank Massa, and Robin Voorhees and senior John Somers all turning in fine performances in dual meets. It was this potential plus the hard work of all the participants that made it possible for the Cross Country Team to have a rewarding competitive season.

Despite playing probably the toughest schedule in the state, the high spirited Cougars felt disappointed with their improved record of 7 wins and 16 losses. Spirits ran high as the Cougars breezed through their scrimmages without a loss. Inexperience under pressure seemed to be their weakness while dropping a cliff hanger to a solid New Providence team by a misleading 7 points in their first game. This lack of experience seemed to have plagued them for most of the season.

With the addition of four games to the regular season, and the withdrawal of West Orange from the Big Ten, the Cougars found themselves playing such highly rated teams as Westfield, Barringer, Summit, and Thomas Jefferson. It was to these games that the team looked forward the most, playing for the big upset. Although it never materialized, the Cougars always managed to stay within range.

Captains Barry Adams and Richard Broskie provided the main offensive punch for their team throughout the season. Coach Pete Cross continually stressed the need for a controlled, deliberate offense and a solid defense. As a result of hard work, the Cougars held their opponents to under 56 points per game during the regular season: a goal they had set at the beginning of the year. Their defense, along with their determination never to give up on any game, reflected on the scoreboard as the Cougars rarely lost one by more than 7 points.

Because of a well-balanced team, everyone was able to contribute to the improved record. Tom Cohen proved to be a steady rebounder and scoring threat throughout the season. A more confident Mark Wallhauser capped off his season with the game against Mountain High School. Six-foot-seven Bill Rebhan came around in the second Orange game, scoring 12 points and grabbing 17 rebounds.

For only the fourth time in Columbia basketball history, the Cougars participated in the State tournament, bowing to one of the best teams in the state, Weequahic.

That loss, along with the resignation of Coach Pete Cross, made the end of the season an unusually sad one. The basketball team will miss his energetic devotion and involvement with the players and the game. The seniors would like to thank him for the sacrifices he made to make us better ballplayers.

This year the Columbia Swim Team had a record of five wins and ten losses. Although it was a disappointing season, some consolation may be derived from the fact that five of these losses were by seven points or less. The team achieved second-place finishes in both the Big Ten Championship and the Essex County Championship.

The Mermen were led by Captain Bob Hetherington and Assistant Captain Mike Breen. Important contributions were made by senior Peter Skarzinski, juniors Hank Kearney and Peter Amerman, and sophomore Bruce Pearl.

Columbia swimming will definitely be aided by the entrance of strong swimmers. With Amerman, Kearney, and Pearl combining to form a strong team nucleus, and with Coach David Yoresh accepting nothing less than victory, the Columbia Mermen should return to its winning ways.

INDOOR TRACK

After three years as a club, Indoor Track finally made its debut as an interscholastic sport. Its initial season, like most sports competitions, was comprised of disappointment and elation.

Because this was the first season, there were few meets in which the team was able to compete. A dual meet with Jefferson High School was the only one of its type and was won by Columbia, 35-33. A number of boys ran excellent races in spite of the 15° weather.

There were two open meets at the Jersey City Armory in which the school records were broken. Peter Davis broke his own two-mile record while Bob Duerr established a new half-mile standard, and John Santillo broke the 440 yard mark. Doug Richardson set an excellent high jump mark, and Jim Somers and Jim Davis set sophomore records in one and two mile runs respectively.

Key injuries threatened to dampen the Cougars' chances in the first annual Big Ten Winter Championships. However, wins by Mike Durbin in the high jump and Bob Duerr in the half-mile led Columbia to victory by a five point margin, and this without the services of Peter Davis and Jim Somers. Key roles were also played by John Santillo, Elson Seale, who set a school record in the 60-yard dash while being out-leaned at the tape, and by Joe Tamburo in the shot put.

The State Relay Championships saw a distance medley team of Tom Evers, John Santillo, Bob Duerr and Peter Davis who settled for a fifth place finish.

At the State Group 4 Championships, three boys qualified for the State Championship meet at Princeton's beautiful Jadwin Gym. Those boys were Doug Richardson and Mike Durbin in the high jump, and Peter Davis in the two-mile run.

Other seniors who contributed to the success of the first Cougar Indoor Track squad were sprinters Dave Leiwant and Bruce Pietz, and middle distance runner Art Pomerantz.

Coach Al Hector's C.H.S. Wrestling Team posted a 6-8 regular season record in the '72-'73 campaign. The Cougars started off like a barn-a-fire, winning their first five meets. However, they dropped the next eight before receiving a forfeit win from Vailsburg because of that school's inner conflicts.

An addition to this year's schedule was the Roselle Park Holiday Invitational Tournament, held during Christmas vacation with seven other schools. Seniors Steve Frampton (148 lbs.) and Ray Marks (106 lbs.) won second place medals.

Most wrestlers agree that the regular season is just a warm-up for the post season activity. First, the wrestlers hope to win, or be a runner-up, in the District Championships so that they can advance to the Regional Championships. Regional winners then go to Princeton to participate in the State Championships.

Four wrestlers, runners-up in the Districts, were sent to the Regionals held at Irvington High. They were: Marks, Frampton (this year's captain), Russell Crockett (115 lbs.), and junior Dan Sherman (141 lbs.) Senior Gordon Williams (178 lbs.) and junior Grey Perna (157 lbs.) won third place district medals.

Bad luck and rough pairings struck the four regional reps, as they all lost in the first round the following week at Union High.

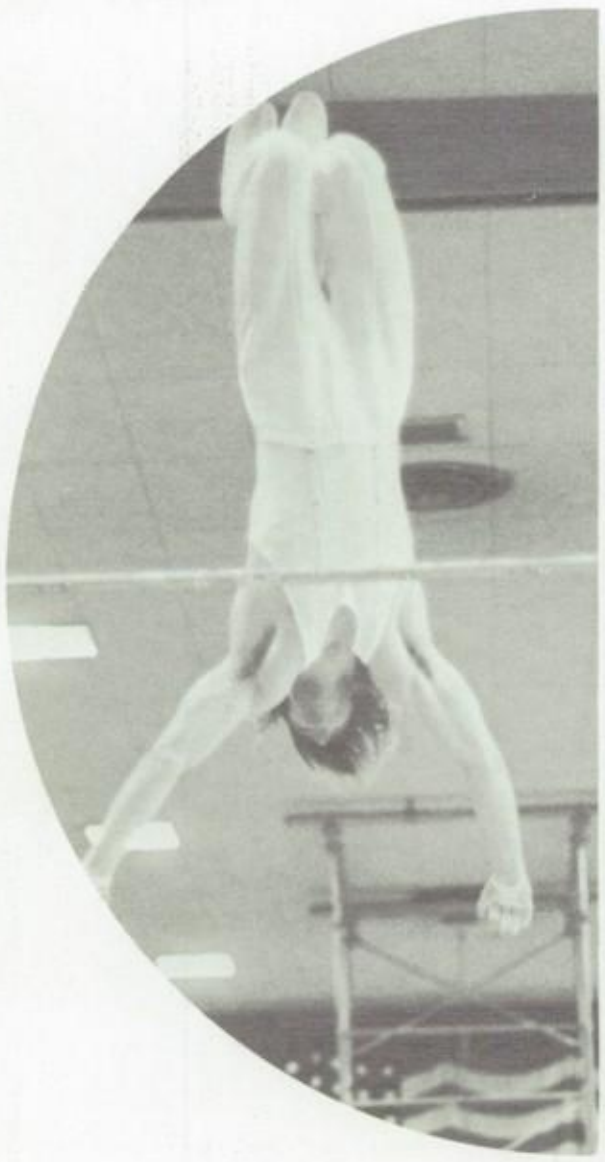
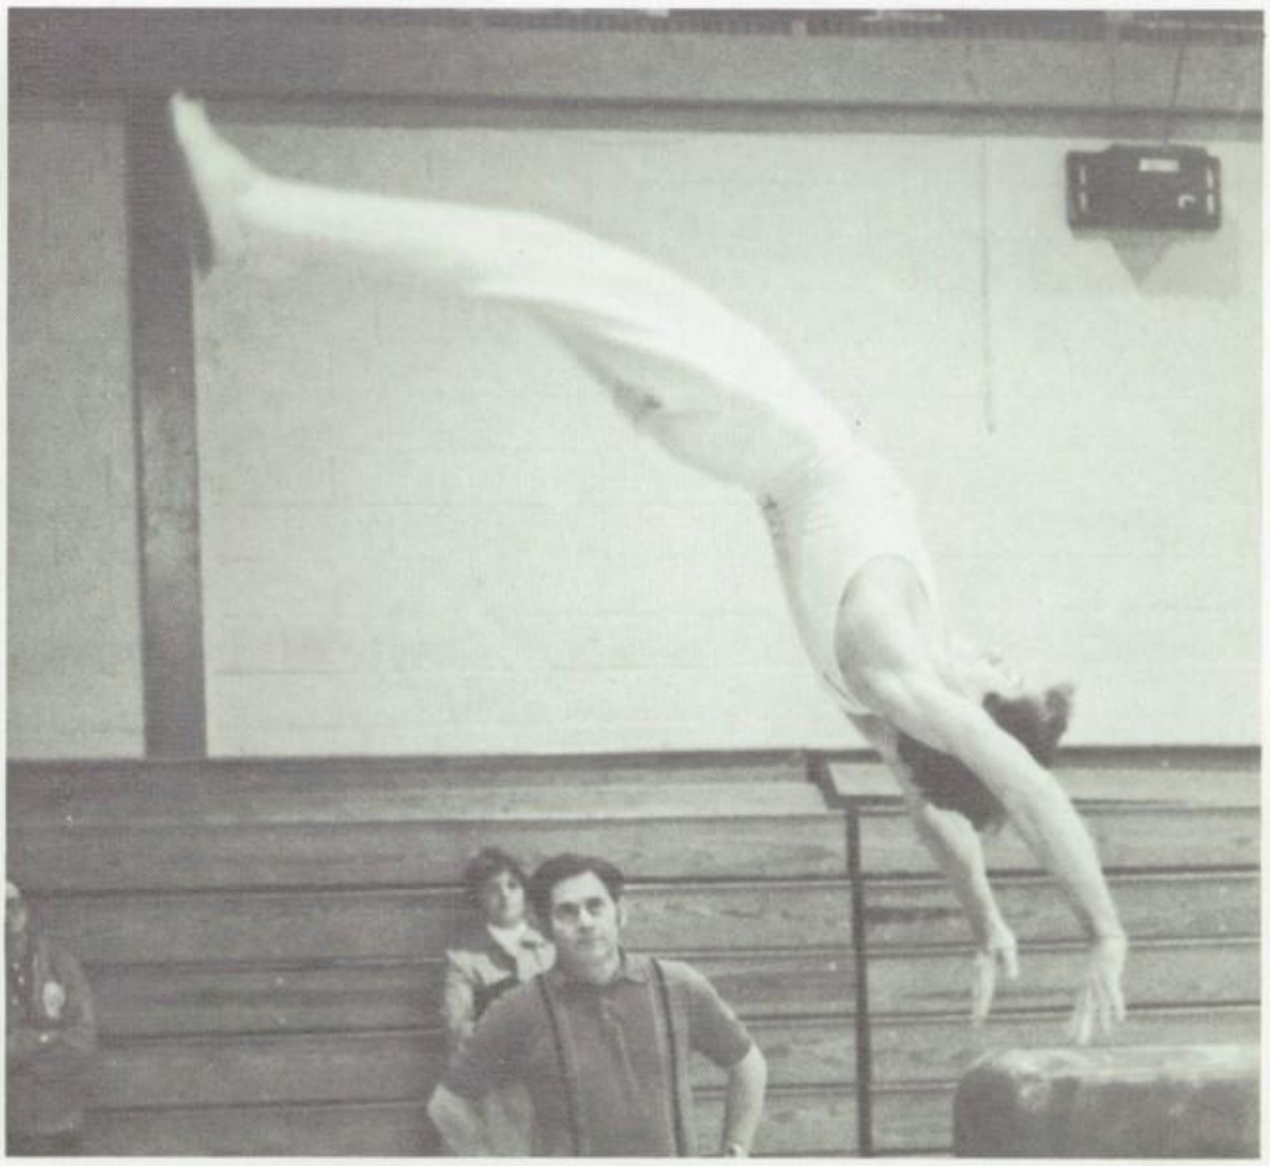
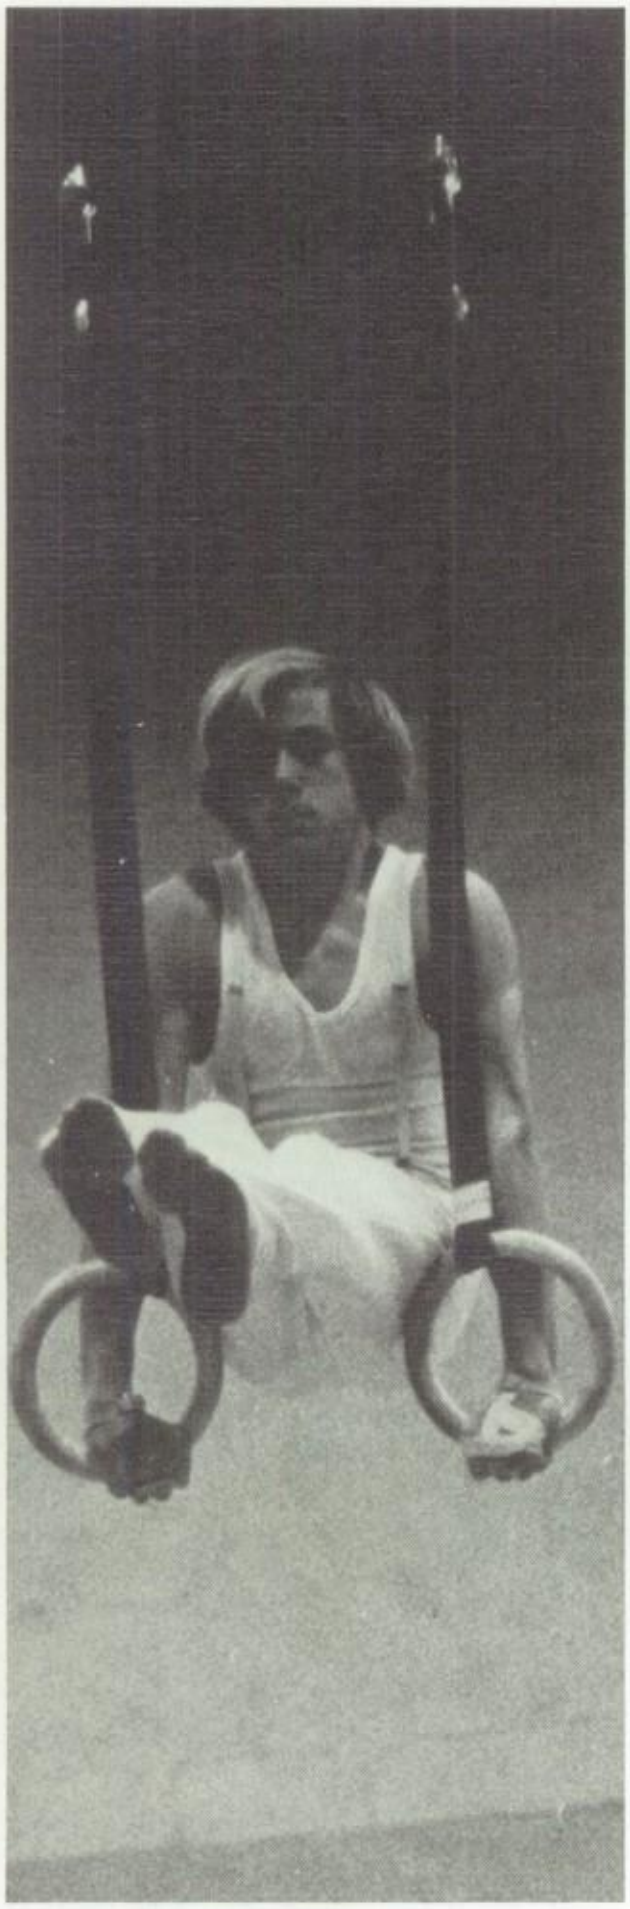
GYMNASTICS TEAM







From a bystander's point of view, the Columbia High School Varsity Gymnastics Team, coached by Mr. Marvin Speidel of South Orange Junior High, has done extremely well. Although they have only been in existence for one year, their high spirits and morale have given them a superb outlook for the future.

Captain Tim McNany has shown his potential by competing on the parallel bars, high bar and long horse with scores of 5.37, 5.45, and 8.10 respectively.

Don Gialanella, co-captain, received a combined total score of 27.80 while competing in the all-around events. He participated on the high bar and parallel bars (his specialties), pommel horse, long-horse, rings, and on the mats.

Other members of this fine team are Bob Haldy, Mitch Rothstein, Keith Kozlowski, Matt Pakonis, Pat O'Connor, Joe Magid, Steven Fram, John Conlin, Norman Spier, Robin Weiss, and Rhoda Metzger.

Letters were received by Tim McNany, Keith Kozlowski, Don Gialanella, Bob Haldy, Joe Magid, Mitch Rothstein, Pat O'Connor, John Conlon, and Steven Fram.

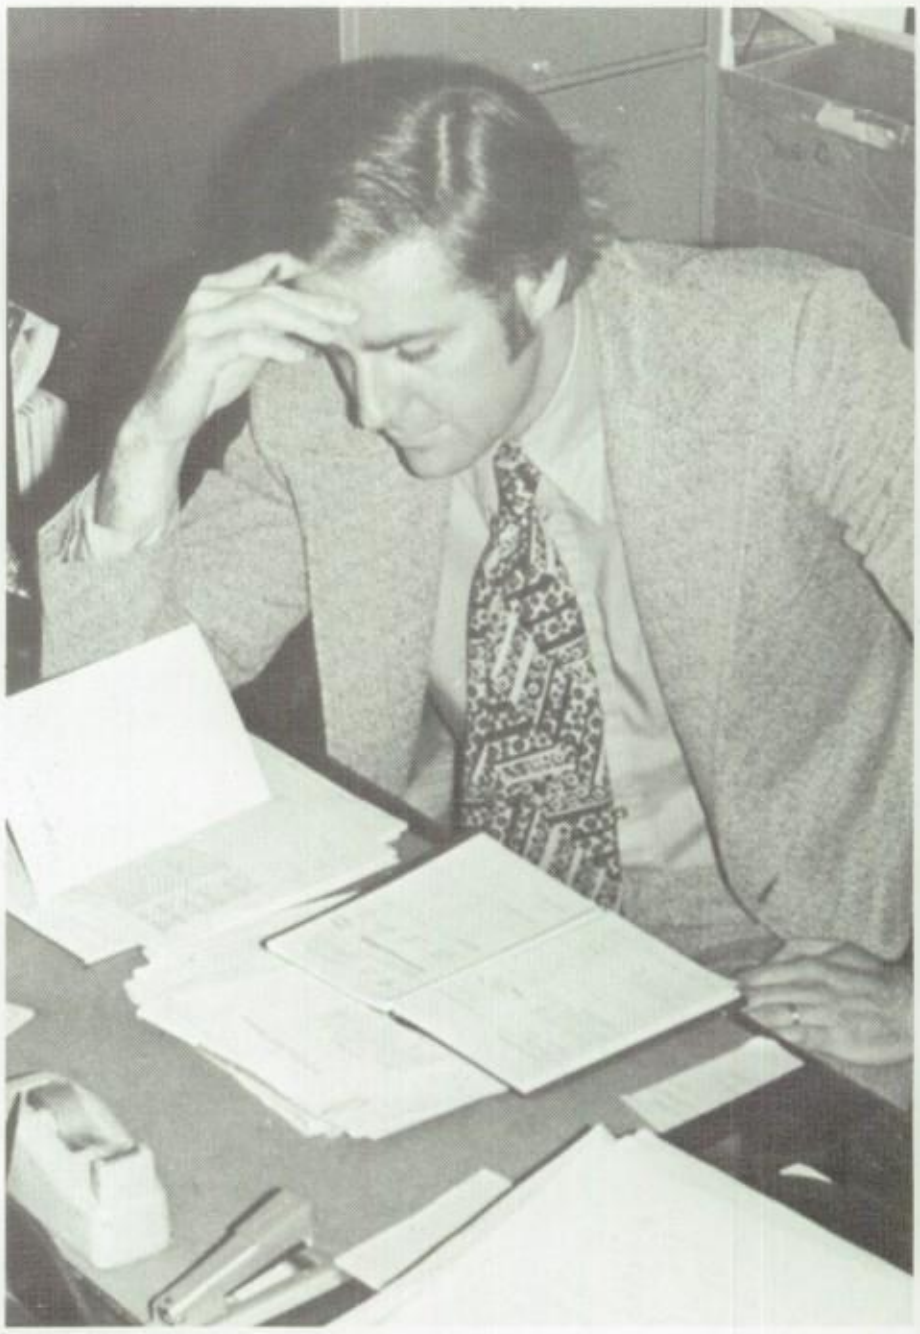
ADMIN.&FACULTY

Dr. F. Roy Nutall
Superintendent Of Schools

Dr. F. Roy Nutall was named Superintendent of Schools on December 20, 1971. He assumed the $35,000-a-year post on February 1, 1972. Prior to that, Dr. Nutall was assistant superintendent in charge of school business, secretary to the Board of Education and Board of School Estimate, and head coach of baseball and basketball at Columbia High School.

He is a graduate of Springfield College and taught and coached in New York State prior to coming to Columbia in 1940 to coach basketball and track. He returned to Columbia in 1945, after three years of service in the United States Coast Guard, as head coach of basketball and baseball. He obtained a master's degree from Columbia University in 1946 and his doctorate in 1961. He has also served as a regional scout for the Cleveland Indians and as a camp director for many years.



Dr. John C. Woodbury
Superintendent of Schools

Dr. John C. Woodbury was named the new Superintendent of Schools and started his position on April 1, 1973. He left his current post as Special Assistant to Dr. Harvey B. Scribner, Chancellor of the New York City School System.

Dr. Woodbury was 33 years old on March 12, a half-month before he assumed his $36,000-a-year job. He will be the district's sixth superintendent since it was consolidated in 1900.

The new superintendent has had a varied career in education since his graduation from Wesleyan University in 1961. He received a master's degree from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy of Tufts University in 1964 and a doctorate in education from the University of Massachusetts six years later.

Dr. Woodbury has taught at, or held administrative positions with the Tilton School in New Hampshire, the North Shore Country Day School in Winnetka, Illinois, the University of Massachusetts, and the United States Office of Education, in addition to his post with the New York board. Dr. Woodbury has been a consultant for numerous educational projects and is the author of The Hope Factor, a book on problems of urban education.

Many and special thanks go to the people who helped in the production of this book; to Miss Patricia O'Hanlon who lifted us off the ground, and Mrs. Molly Rosenberg who pulled us through. Thanks also to Mr. Albert Mucci for his financial assistance and American Yearbook Company representative Mr. Wynne Murchison whose guidance proved invaluable to the 1973 MIRROR.

The Yearbook staff would also like to thank supplemental photographers David Cohn (wrestling, basketball, indoor track & field, and gymnastic pictures) and Mitch Klaif and Chris Michos (dramatic productions), the columbian for their assistance, and Steve Neibart for his initial research and interest on the Elections feature.

Special thanks to Mr. Richard Gross, Mr. Marvin Gershenfeld, and the staff at Richard's Studio for their prompt service, patience, and guidance throughout the year.

Thanks also to the parents of all the editors for their understanding.

Dear Theo,

A few lines of poetry, a song, and a few thoughts probably would do the trick and sum it all up, but I don't have anything. When ever I think of our relationship I think of those lines. "I hope I've been as good a friend to you as you've been to me." I really hope so. Our relationship has grown tremendously this year. Let's not let it fade because we are entering a new phase.

Love,
Karen
